

NCB Vs. Ramdim
Case NO. SC/8500/16

19.05.2018

Present: Sh. P.C. Aggarwal, SPP for NCB.

Sh. Anand Kumar, IO NCB is present.

Today in compliance of order dated 27.04.2018 IO Anand Kumar is present and has stated that the process u/s 82 CrPC has been executed against accused Ramdim. He has been examined as CW1 and his statement has been recorded separately.

In view of the statement recorded today and the publication of the proclamation in the newspapers, it clear that accused Ramdim is absconding and the proclamation issued u/s 82 Cr.PC has been validly executed at his last known address. Taking into consideration the said report and the fact that this accused has not appeared before this court within the stipulated period of 30 days, he is hereby declared a 'Proclaimed Offender'.

Process sent to the surety of accused also repeatedly received back with the report that he could not be traced. In view thereof, let the FDR filed by this surety alongwith the bail bond be encashed and be deposited in treasury.

NCB Vs. Ramdingngheta & Ors.
Case No. SC/8500/16

19.05.2018

CW1: Statement of Sh. Anand Kumar, IO, NCB DZU.

On SA

On 08.03.2018 and 23.03.2018 I alongwith Hawaldar Sanjeev Kumar and IO Rajiv Sehrawat had visited the last known address of the accused Ramdim at D-58A, 1st floor, Chanakya Place part-1, Janakpuri, Delhi. Said address was not found in the area. On enquiry from the local residents of the area, the whereabouts of Ramdim could not be ascertained. Thereafter, I conducted munadi in the area. I thereafter affixed a copy of the said proclamation in the Court premises. I state that my report Ex.CW1/A is true and correct and bears my signatures at point A. I had also got the proclamation published in local newspaper and a copy of the same is annexed with my report and the same is Ex.CW1/B. Despite our best efforts the aforementioned accused could not be traced and is absconding.
